

Cardiff Branch of the Fly Dressers' Guild

Do you want to learn how to tie flies, improve your current standard or catch a fish on a fly you have tied yourself

If so

The Cardiff Branch of the Fly Dressers' Guild that meets every first Monday of the month (Bank Holidays Excepted) can help you

at

The Pantmawr Inn, Rhiwbina, Cardiff.

7:00pm to 9:00pm

Whatever your style of fly fishing , salmon, trout, grayling, competition or coarse fish Guild members can help you tie suitable flies that catch fish.

Learn to tie successful flies that you cannot buy and become a member of a national fly tying organisation with links across the world.

All abilities welcome from expert to beginner.

For further details contact: membership@flydressersguild.org or visit the Guild website at www.flydressersguild.org or just turn up at the Pantmawr Inn on the first Monday of the month
